

JANUARY

January 5-7: Mike Burton

Mike has enjoyed performing at colleges from Maine to the Dakota's, New Mexico, Florida, and Colorado. He's done commercials for Hewlett-Packard and Modell's Sporting Goods and has been the substitute warm-up guy for The Chew and Rachel Ray. Recently he became the full time warm-up guy for ABC's daytime talk show The Revolution with Tim Gunn and Ty Pennington.

Featuring: Bill Squire

January 12-14: Dave Hemstad

Dave is a three-time Canadian Comedy Award nominee who made his national television debut on CBC at the Halifax Comedy Festival in 2002. His more recent televised comedic achievements include a taping of his own Comedy Now Special for CTV's Comedy Network as well as a Gala performance at the prestigious Just for Laughs Festival in Montreal. Dave is a regular on the CBC's The Debaters and stars in Showcase's new comedy series Almost Heroes. Dave has performed on stage in England, Singapore and the USA as well as across Canada.

Featuring: Mike Conley

January 19-21: Erik Rivera

Since bursting onto the NYC comedy scene in 2004, Erik Rivera's name has become synonymous with comedy. His "boy next door" good looks and unique perspective make him one of today's fastest rising young comedians. With quick wit, commanding stage presence, charisma and an infectious smile, Rivera has become a favorite act at comedy clubs, events and colleges throughout the country.

Featuring: Joe Zimmerman

January 26-28: Tammy Pescatelli

Becoming one of the top finalists on "Last Comic Standing" has catapulted Tammy's career and won her a slew of new fans, solidifying her as one of the sharpest women in comedy. Tammy has appeared twice as a guest on "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno," and "Dennis Miller" and has been a featured comic on PAX's "Balderdash" National Lampoon's "Funny Money" and Comedy Central's "The World Stands Up."

FEBRUARY

February 2-4: Taylor Williamson

New York Magazine called him a "Name to Watch" and a "nineteen-year-old cerebral wit". Performing at the Just For Laughs Comedy Festival, The Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson, MTV's TRL, Comedy Central, David Letterman, an HBO special, and a starring role in the 15th season of The Surreal Life. So join us this week as we welcome this Californian to the Great North East!

Featuring: AR George

February 9-11: Derick Lengwenus

Derick emerged onto the Montreal Comedy Scene in 2000 and immediately attracted attention. In 2001 he appeared in the prestigious Just For Laughs Festival where his style was described as clever writing with a quick left turn into absurdity. Since then Derick has gone on to record his own 1 hour special for television. Most recently Derick took home silver in the 33rd Annual San Francisco Comedy Competition!

Featuring: Sal Demilio

February 16-18: Kevin Meaney

In a world of few absolutes, this is one: KEVIN MEANEY was born to entertain. From his earliest days as a singing altar boy at Mass, he's gone on to achieve mass appeal for his singular brand of comedy that includes acting out stories, musical flights of fancy and telling tales on the family. Kevin has been one of the country's most popular standup comedians for more than 25 years. Tom Shales of the Washington Post said, "Picture the precocious love child of Jonathan Winters and Ethel Merman and you have some idea of Kevin Meaney's act."

Featuring: BK Langer

February 23-25: Buzz Sutherland

Buzz is a man who is sincerely and seriously committed to entertaining audiences with humor that is 100% clean and 200% funny. Buzz has been at the very top of the college comedy world for the past 7 years winning Comedian of the Year honors a record 16 times. He was named Comedian of the Year by the National Association of Campus Activities (NACA) for the last 5 years the award was given. In addition, he was named overall Entertainer of the Year by NACA the final year of the awards.

Featuring: Alvin Williams, Jr.

MARCH

March 1-3: Heidi Foss

Nominated for a Canadian Comedy Award as Best Female Stand-up in Canada, Heidi has combined her background in theatre with her unusually sardonic perception of everyday life to become a standout presence on the North American comedy scene. Her dry, deadpan delivery has earned her numerous appearances in the International Just For Laughs Festival and on the CBC television show, as well as on CTV's Comedy Now!

Featuring: Mark Matusof

March 8-10: Greg Warren

Most recently seen on "The Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson," has been building a strong fan base around the country with his act inspired by stories from his Midwestern upbringing. Greg attracts a diverse audience spectrum, performing on networks such as BET (as a finalist on "Coming to the Stage") and Country Music Television's "Comedy Stage". Greg is also a favorite on the nationally syndicated "Bob and Tom" radio show.

Featuring: JK Elmno

March 15-17: Orny Adams

American comic Orny Adams first rose to international prominence after co-starring in Jerry Seinfeld's documentary "Comedian." He has had several appearances on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno and has appeared on The Late Show with David Letterman. In 2010, Orny followed up his critically acclaimed debut comedy DVD/CD "Path Of Most Resistance," with a powerful and poignant one hour special "Orny Adams Takes The Third" which aired on Comedy Central.

Featuring: BK Langer

March 22-24: Bud Anderson

Often referred to as "America's Best Known Unknown", Bud draws on the peculiarities of human behavior, adding an occasional touch of original music, visual effects, and a hilarious tongue twisting take never before attempted on a comedy stage. His "Clean but Naughty" delivery and style will astound even the most seasoned comedy fan!

Featuring: KL Scorch

March 29-31: Tim Cavanagh

Tim's funny songs have received tremendous radio air play across the country, playing regularly on such nationally syndicated programs as the The Bob and Tom Show, The Dr. Demento Radio Show, and The Danny Bonaduce Show. Tim has appeared on ABC-TV, Showtime, Comedy Central and Comcast and has headlined major comedy clubs and hundreds of colleges throughout America.
